Patient Instructions for Form 7.31

Limited Patient Authorization for Disclosure of Protected Health Information

This form will give our office the authority to provide the person or entity you designate on the form with access to your protected health information (PHI). The Limited Patient Authorization limits us to disclose only the information that you designate, and does not give any other rights to the person you have named on the form. Use of this form will enable us to provide your health information to a person or entity that may be involved in your healthcare.

The following outline will describe the information we will need on the form and its purpose. Please address any questions you have with our staff.

Patient Name - Print your name.

Social Security Number and Date of Birth - This information is needed for identity verification and will be maintained in a confidential manner at all times.

Entity Requested to Release Information - This simply identifies who is to provide the information (i.e., our practice).

Purpose of Request - To disclose your protected health information to an individual.

Who will be authorized to receive information - Enter the name, address and phone number of the individual or entity that you are that you are designating to receive the disclosure. If you would like your PHI emailed to the recipient, please provide the email address that you would like us to use, and review the note on the team regarding Secure Communication.

Description of information to be disclosed - the type and amount of health information that we disclosed is determined by you. We can disclose or provide access to all of your health information, or it can be limited to a specific item.

Purpose of Disclosure - Regulations require that we identify the purpose for disclosing limited information. you also have the right to keep the purpose to yourself by selecting "Patient Request."

Expiration or Termination - this authorization will expire at the end of the calendar year in which it was signed unless you specify an earlier termination. The authorization must be renewed each year as a means of protecting your information by verifying your wish to continue the authorization for disclosure.

Right to Revoke or Terminate - You may revoke or terminate the authorization at any time by submitting written notice to our Privacy Manager.

Non-Conditioning Statement - This simply states that our practice does not place conditions for treatment on completion of this authorization form.

Redisclosure Statement - We cannot be responsible for what the receiving entity does with your health information that we provide under this authorization. The redisclosure statement simply informs you of this situation.

Signature and Date - We will need your signature and date of the signature to make the authorization effective.

Copies - We will provide you with a copy of this signed authorization upon request.
